

To Members and Friends of Oakland-Cambridge Presbyterian Church,

Pastor Scott is away the next two Sundays (June 24 and July 2). He is attending the Washington Island Theological Forum sponsored by the Wisconsin Council of Churches and the Christian Century magazine. This year's speaker is John Dominic Crossan, <https://www.johndominiccrossan.com/>. If you need emergency pastoral care while Pastor Scott is out of town, please contact any member of the Session or call the church office. The Rev. Matthew Ploeger, pastor at Brwn Mawr in Cottage Grove, is on call for any emergency pastoral care needs.

Chaplain Nancy Breitsprecher is our guest preacher on June 24. Rev. Jessica Nylund Salt will be our guest on July 2. Rev. Salt will be celebrating communion with us.

Pastor Scott will continue this summer series “The Psalmist, Dr. Seuss and God” on July 9. Upcoming Dr. Seuss stories will be The Butter Battle Book, Yertle the Turtle, The Sneetches, Green Eggs and Ham, Horton Hears a Who, and How the Grinch Stole Christmas. If it works out, we may have musical guests (including Sam Marrese-Wheeler) from the cast of Seussical the Musical on July 23. Their show is at the Stoughton High School auditorium on July 27, 28, and 29.

This year we are sitting on the third base side in the TDS Triple Play area. The ticket cost is $31. This includes all the ballpark food (brats, specialty brats, burgers, chicken, hot dogs, sides) you can eat during the game. Each ticket will also come with three beverage or children's games tabs. The deadline to sign up has passed, but we can probably obtain additional tickets if you call OCPC ASAP!

Ladies, you have been contacted for salad donations. Please have them in the church kitchen by 10 AM, labeled with your name and the name of the salad. Also be sure to check them in with a member of the committee. Special Summer Music at OCPC! This Sunday, June 18, we will once again have special music. We are pleased to welcome Fred and Olivia Beaster. Fred is a recent graduate of McFarland High School and plans on attending Lawrence University in the Fall. Olivia will be a Sophomore. Both won vocal awards at the Wisconsin State Solo & Ensemble this past April. We look forward to their sharing their musical gifts with us! Please join make them and their family and friends feel welcome this Sunday!

A big thank you to Cheryl Spore, Barb Brown, Mare Stewart, Lisa Leadholm, and Bobbi Rumpf for the beautiful music this past Sunday, July 11!

We hope to have more special music as the summer unfolds!

OCPC Member in the News! Matthew Mandli, who along with his parents, has been attending worship at OCPC. You might remember that on Holy Humor Sunday back in April, Matthew shared his Yo-Yo talents with us. He will also be doing so during the upcoming Strawberry Luncheon. Matthew and his Yo-Yo's will be competing in a Regional Competition this summer. You can read about Matthew in the McFarland Thistle.

Pews, Pews, Pews! You will notice that we are not just getting rid of some pews, but we are really working to create a more welcoming, usable worship space. With no choir, we moved those pews, situating them in the front rows, while moving the piano up on to the chancel. This opens up our worship space for baptisms, funerals, weddings, children's programs, when we have special music, and for decorating at Christmas and Easter.

Where have some of our pews gone? No, we have not set up a new outdoor worship space with them. We did move 9 pews from our church. 5 had been in the basement, 4 others were from the sanctuary. 2 of the pews now reside in the McFarland High School choir room and will be used in the fall musical - "Guys and Dolls". 2 are with the UW-Madison theatre department. 1 is in now in a musical studio for students and their parents to use during lessons. 1 is in the basement of Pastor Scott, which he would like to say will remain there for a very long time!

THE PSALMIST, DR. SEUSS, AND GOD We all grew up with Dr. Seuss. But did you know that he was a theologian too? A theologian is anyone who talks about God directly or indirectly. Theodor Seuss Geisel did just that in many of us his books. This summer, Pastor Scott will be exploring with us some of our favorite Dr. Seuss books, connecting them to the Psalms and God. This Sunday, June 18, we will be reading from Horton Hatches The Egg and Psalm 118.

CHURCH CLEANING A big thank you to Kay Lund for volunteering to clean the sanctuary, fellowship hall and restrooms! We do not have a paid person to do the cleaning or maintenance of our church. We rely on volunteers to do so. Kay has graciously volunteered to help us out. If you would like to help Kay, please let the church office or Elder Mark Touhey know. We will greatly appreciate it!

Interested in a church pew? We have a few available. They are about 9 feet in length. In good condition. We are asking for a donation and you pick it up at the church. We have 4-6 of the nine spoken for at this time. Call the church office if interested. Please know that 5 of these pews were moved up from the basement where they have been stored for the past 18 years. The other four come from the sanctuary. Some of our pews are going to good homes, like a school choir room and library.

THE PSALMIST, DR. SEUSS, AND GOD We all grew up with Dr. Seuss. But did you know that he was a theologian too? A theologian is anyone who talks about God directly or indirectly. And Theodor Seuss Geisel did just that in many of us his books. This summer, Pastor Scott will be exploring with us some of our favorite Dr. Seuss books, connecting them to the Psalms and God. This Sunday, June 11, we begin with The Lorax and Psalm 8 & 24.

"When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability." Acts 2:1-5

Pentecost is this Sunday, June 4. Pentecost Sunday is sometimes celebrated as the birth of the Church. Some of the symbols of the Spirit are fire, wind, a dove, and sometimes, water. Red is the liturgical color associated with the Holy Spirit. We invite you to join us this Sunday, as we too will be celebrating Pentecost. We invite you to wear something red to worship. Communion will be served and we will be acknowledging those who are graduating from area high schools.

Friday, June 2 is National Gun Violence Awareness Day. Gun violence kills more than 90 Americans a day and injures hundreds more. That's why this June 2nd on National Gun Violence Awareness Day, Americans across the country will Wear Orange—a color that demands to be seen—to send the powerful message that there is more we can do to end gun violence. Join the #WearOrange movement. Here is the link to Pastor Scott's sermon on God Not Guns: A Biblical Reflection.

"A graveyard is an old agreement made between the living and the living who have died that says we will keep their names and dates alive." Thomas Lynch
