

To Members and Friends of Oakland-Cambridge Presbyterian Church,

PARKING LOT UPDATE: Well, as of this E-news addition the parking lot repaving project has yet to begin. Bartelt Paving Company had hoped to begin last Thursday, but due to weather, their start date was delayed. They are hoping to begin sometime this week. Once they begin, they will tear off the old black top surface and lay down a new gravel foundation. We will be unable to park in the lot for a few days until the gravel base settles. They will then return about a week later to pave and stripe the new surface. We will email you when the work begins.

Part of the current lot will not be repaved. The two sections pictured below, will have the old surface torn off, but will not be totally repaved. The Southeast corner facing the street will have a 24' section unpaved. The East facing section by the Yew bushes will have a 7' section left unpaved. The plan is to return this to green space, possibly even a garden? We will not be losing parking space, while improving the green space around the church.

FROSTY FREEZE ANYONE? On Sunday, May 20 following worship, the Sunday School Children, Youth and their teachers will venture over to Fort Atkinson to Frosty Freeze. You are welcome to join them! P.S. While Pastor Scott has been to Fort many times to visit family and for cross country meets, he has never stopped at Frosty Freeze!

BOOK STUDY AT OCPC... We will continue our discussion of John Irving's novel - A Prayer for Owen Meany on Sunday, May 20 at noon. We will have a light lunch to go with our discussion. Even if you were unable to make the first one, please feel free to join us this time.

RECLAIMING JESUS: A CONFESSION OF FAITH IN A TIME OF CRISIS:

From the religious leaders: WE ARE DEEPLY CONCERNED for the soul of our nation, but also for our churches and the integrity of our faith. The present crisis calls us to go deeper— deeper into our relationship to God; deeper into our relationships with each other, especially across racial, ethnic, and national lines; deeper into our relationships with the most vulnerable, who are at greatest risk. The church is always subject to temptations to power, to cultural conformity, and to racial, class, and gender divides, as Galatians 3:28 teaches us. But our answer is to be “in Christ,” and to “not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable, and perfect.” (Romans 12:1-2) The best response to our political, material, cultural, racial, or national idolatries is the First Commandment: “You shall have no other gods before me” (Exodus 20:3). Jesus summarizes the Greatest Commandment: “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, your soul, and your mind. This is the first commandment. And the second is like unto it. You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these commandments hang all the law and the prophets” (Matthew 22:38). As to loving our neighbors, we would add “no exceptions.” We commend this letter to pastors, local churches, and young people who are watching and waiting to see what the churches will say and do at such a time as this. Our urgent need, in a time of moral and political crisis, is to recover the power of confessing our faith. Lament, repent, and then repair. If Jesus is Lord, there is always space for grace. We believe it is time to speak and to act in faith and conscience, not because of politics, but because we are disciples of Jesus Christ—to whom be all authority, honor, and glory. It is time for a fresh confession of faith. Jesus is Lord. He is the light in our darkness. “I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life” (John 8:12).
