

To Members and Friends of Oakland-Cambridge Presbyterian Church,

MAY 20 IS PENTECOST SUNDAY! We invite you to wear the color “red”. It is the liturgical color representing the Spirit.

PARKING LOT UPDATE: As the say, “Off with the old, and in with the new!” The old black top has been removed, and hopefully, when it dries out, the new pavement will be laid down, along with the parking spaces being striped.

LANDSCAPING PROJECT: With the Parking Lot improvements, we are also planning on a landscaping addition to the “Peace Garden”. While it looks a little like a “Mud Wrestling Arena” at the moment, there are plans to landscape this particular section. We hope to have this completed by the end of June.

FROSTY FREEZE POSTPONED! Due to scheduling conflicts, we are postponing our trip to Frosty Freeze to a future, undetermined Sunday. That doesn't mean you have to wait to eat Ice cream!

BOOK STUDY AT OCPC MEETS THIS SUNDAY, MAY 20 AT NOON. We will continue our discussion of John Irving's novel - A Prayer for Owen Meany. We will have a light lunch to go with our discussion. Even if you were unable to make the first one, please feel free to join us this time.

RECLAIMING JESUS: A CONFESSION OF FAITH IN A TIME OF CRISIS:

We continue exploring this new faith statement during our Sunday morning worship. From the religious leaders: WE ARE DEEPLY CONCERNED for the soul of our nation, but also for our churches and the integrity of our faith. The present crisis calls us to go deeper— deeper into our relationship to God; deeper into our relationships with each other, especially across racial, ethnic, and national lines; deeper into our relationships with the most vulnerable, who are at greatest risk. The church is always subject to temptations to power, to cultural conformity, and to racial, class, and gender divides, as Galatians 3:28 teaches us. But our answer is to be “in Christ,” and to “not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable, and perfect.” (Romans 12:1-2) The best response to our political, material, cultural, racial, or national idolatries is the First Commandment: “You shall have no other gods before me” (Exodus 20:3). Jesus summarizes the Greatest Commandment: “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, your soul, and your mind. This is the first commandment. And the second is like unto it. You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these commandments hang all the law and the prophets” (Matthew 22:38). As to loving our neighbors, we would add “no exceptions.” We commend this letter to pastors, local churches, and young people who are watching and waiting to see what the churches will say and do at such a time as this. Our urgent need, in a time of moral and political crisis, is to recover the power of confessing our faith. Lament, repent, and then repair. If Jesus is Lord, there is always space for grace. We believe it is time to speak and to act in faith and conscience, not because of politics, but because we are disciples of Jesus Christ—to whom be all authority, honor, and glory. It is time for a fresh confession of faith. Jesus is Lord. He is the light in our darkness. “I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life” (John 8:12).
