

To Members and Friends of Oakland-Cambridge Presbyterian Church,

LANDSCAPE WORK AT OCPC... When you come by the church again, you will notice some changes to the landscape around the parking lot and in the Peace Garden. A huge shout-out to Mark Touhey and Judy Schroeder for organizing the work times at church! We also want to say a big “thank you” to Stub Lund for firing up his chainsaw on multiple days, even starting at 5 AM on Monday. With the help of Mardy Schilleman and Kay Lund, Stub and his early morning crew (5-11A M) cut down all the yew bushes and the over-grown lilac tree. Thank you also to the Village of Cambridge for hauling away all the brush!

The hard work was begun on Saturday morning, and then on Monday evening, a crew of 9 showed up to move dirt, spread mulch, weed and trim bushes. Thank you to Mark Touhey, Judy Schroeder, Randy & Renee Johnson, Bud Rumpf, Joe Leto, Sam Marrese-Wheeler and Pastor Scott. But the work isn't yet complete. There's more dirt and mulch to be moved. Then the new garden area needs to be planted and mulched. Let Mark know when you can help!

RECLAIMING JESUS STATEMENT AND THE DECLARATION OF BARMEN
SERMON DISCUSSION SERIES (JULY 29, AUGUST 5 & 12)

This Sunday, July 29, we will begin our worship in the Sanctuary. As we share in our “Two Plus” time, we will move into the Fellowship Hall, gathering in small groups around 4-tables (5 people per group). Each Group will have a Table Facilitator to guide our discussion. To assist us, here are some guidelines for respectful listening and sharing. For those who wish to do some prep in advance, here is this Sunday’s Scripture, Faith Statement Section, and questions.

Following Jesus: Guidelines for Our Time of Reflection. Listening and Learning Together:

Your call to follow Jesus means that you are called to be the best version of yourself that you can be—who God made you to be. Civil discourse requires that we treat people with respect as we seek and serve Christ in each other and strive for the respect and dignity of every human being. It means treating people how we want to be treated, even in disagreement and even if we do not have shared values.

*Respect – Respect each person you meet and take the time to truly consider what they are saying. Respond, don’t react. No blaming, shaming or attacking another person.

*Listen Deeply – Listen to what each person is saying, focus on the ideas presented, and discuss ideas and issues – not people. No side conversations as they distract from engagement and listening. Do not interrupt while others are speaking.

*Speak for Yourself – Use “I” statements when commenting or responding. Share your personal experience.

*Try to Understand – Try to understand the thoughts and ideas of others. Ask questions for clarification.

*Share Talk Time – Make sure everyone has the opportunity to speak before speaking again. Take notes if there are things you want to follow up on. Ask what others think.

*Speak Respectfully – When you choose to speak, respect your fellow learners and do not try to be the one that knows everything about the topic at hand.

*Gratitude – If someone has shared something or asked a question that helps with your own learning, say thank you.

*Suspend Judgment – We all have presumptions, biases, stereotypes, prejudices, and other prejudgments. Try to suspend these and seek to understand.

*Disagree, Don’t Debate – We are here to learn and listen. You can disagree with someone and still love them and listen to them. This isn’t about who is right, but about listening and learning together.

*Practice Forgiveness – We learn from trying things out and sometimes we make mistakes. Seek to forgive and to be forgiven as we learn together.

*Pay Attention to Your Feelings and Thoughts – If you do not feel safe asking a question or commenting on a topic, write it down and ask someone to help you give voice to it or talk it through. If something hurts your feelings, acknowledge that the comment (not the person) hurt and explain why.

Questions for Reflection & Discussion as Followers of Jesus on Scripture & Statements:

Scripture Lesson: Matthew 6:9-15

‘Pray then in this way: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And do not bring us to the time of trial, but rescue us from the evil one. For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you; but if you do not forgive others, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.’

- What stood out for you as you heard the reading from the Gospel of Matthew?
- What does this scripture call you to believe about Jesus?
- When we say, “Your kingdom come, your will be done,” what does that mean for you?

The Declaration of Barmen and Reclaiming Jesus

- What stood out for you in reading and listening to these two faith statements?
- For you, I wonder what it means to be a Christian first and everything else second?
- For you, what does it mean that Jesus is Lord? What does that look like in your life?
- How would our fellow citizens know we are Christians by our love?
- What does it mean to commit ourselves as Christians today?
- Who is Jesus Christ for us today?
- What does our loyalty to him require?
- What does it mean to be disciples who regard Jesus as Lord at this moment in our history?

HISTORY REVISITED: This past Tuesday, we were blessed to have two Great-Great Granddaughters, and a Great-Great Niece of OCPC’s founding pastor, The Rev. Dr. William Cargen and his wife Mary Ann, stop by the church for a visit. They live out of state, but were in the Cambridge area. Having done some family genealogy, they wanted to see the church he had helped to start. Mark Touhey, Ruth Poole, and Pastor Scott played host by showing them church historical records, the beautiful quilt of the church history, and then a guided tour of the family graves in the Lake Ripley Cemetery.

GIVING UPDATE... It's the summer, and with it many of us are busy with all kinds of outdoor activities. While you may be on vacation, our bills are not. Please remember your OCPC pledge and support our ministry with your financial gifts. Thank you!

PANCAKES, EVERYONE! The Deacons are once again holding their annual Pancake Breakfast on Saturday, August 4 as a part of Maxwell Street Days. Volunteers are needed to work several shifts. Donations of various items would also be welcomed. Sign up this Sunday!

THANK YOU! Thank you to everyone who turned in receipts from the Cambridge Piggly Wiggly. We received a check for $165 which will be used for local mission.

BIG READ: *TROUBLE I'VE SEEN: CHANGING THE WAY THE CHURCH

VIEWES RACISM "Just as Jesus defied Herod and then continued on with the work of liberating healing and justice-filled shalom, so too must Christians subvert every way that our society's racial hierarchy is allowed to exist. This subversion must happen first and foremost in the church."

This fall, Madison Christian Community would love to have individuals, small groups, or big groups in your congregation join a multi-congregational inter-denominational BIG READ of Drew Hart's book Trouble I've Seen: Changing the Way the Church Views Racism, with the opportunity and resources for a variety of events and ways to engage. The book is very accessible and engaging for what is not an easy topic, and we have recently confirmed for the author to be here for the conclusion of the Big Read the weekend of December 1 & 2. Order books here. Let them know you're part of the MCC (Madison Christian Community) ordering, and you'll receive 40% off the cover price, so books are only about $10 each! Contact Pastors Sonja Ingebritsen or Nick Utphall for more information or to let them know you're interested!
