

To Members and Friends of Oakland-Cambridge Presbyterian Church,

FALL BACK! Remember to turn your clocks back this Sunday, November 4!

ALL SAINTS' SUNDAY... This Sunday, November 4, we will share in our annual All Saints' Worship Service. This year, in addition to our All Saints' Liturgy, we will have four different prayer stations.

- Station 1: You are invited to light a candle of remembrance for a loved one.
- Station 2: Communion (Receive the Bread, dip into the cup, partake).
- Station 3: Prayer, blessing and anointing for healing and wholeness.
- Station 4: You are invited to touch the waters in the baptismal fount and remember that you too are a child of God.

TRIALS & TRIBULATIONS OF A STOCK MARKET-LINKED BUDGET – by Mark Touhey

For almost a decade our church finances have been linked to the stock market. Our budget has exceeded our income – a deficit budget – and we have made up the difference at the end of the year by withdrawing money from our investment accounts – accounts created largely through the gifts of two former members, Hazel Main and Bernice Gillingham.

For almost a decade, the market has been very good to us. How good? We recently repaved our parking lot at a cost of $37,000 and did not request a penny from the congregation. New windows, new storms, a new floor in the kitchen – the bottom line is that we have done well with money generated in the stock market.

Session has based our budget mostly, but not completely, on contributions from current members and income from the manse. Session has also really tried to be frugal. But the bottom line is that we take in about $5,850 each month on average, and spend $6,750. We need our stock market investments to provide about $11,000 each year just to cover expenses.

This is not the church finance structure most of us are used to. This is a different time and a new and scarier path to financial solvency. However, in the long run this funding plan will work. In the bigger picture we are doing well, and will continue to do well financially. Over time, we will pay our employees, meet our expenses, and still have money left for improvements, like the parking lot.

However, in the short term, when the market falls, (as it is doing now) church finances get a little dicey. This is not always a smooth ride. We need to accept a certain level of uncertainty. And we need members to know that while our investments may help us, the annual budget is dependent, first and foremost, on current member giving. Please continue to support your church financially.

FAITH FORMATION AND YOU: Each Sunday, you will find the following questions in the bulletin. These questions are for the whole congregation to reflect on individually during worship. Following worship, you are invited to join a round table discussion on these questions. We will gather at the round table in the back of the Fellowship Hall for a shared time of reflection and discussion.

1. What is the theme of worship?
2. What was the scripture reading/story for the morning?
3. What was one thing you found interesting or insightful or learned from the scripture, sermon, the liturgy, or hymns?
4. What questions did it raise for you about our faith and your own beliefs in God, Jesus and the Church?
5. What were some of the vocabulary words used in the worship bulletin that you had not heard before or did not know their meaning? Write them down and then look them up or ask someone what they think they mean.
6. What other questions about your faith come to mind as you reflect on the worship this morning?

CONGRATULATIONS TO MATT AND ELAINE STEGALL! They were married this past Friday, October 26 in Cudahy, Wisconsin. Pastor Scott was privileged to officiate at their wedding.

BLUE JAY BACKPACK COLLECTION: There are 75 students currently receiving weekend food through the Blue Jay Backpack food program. We are being asked EACH MONTH to collect 75 of each of the following items: microwaveable ravioli and/or spaghetti cups AND low sugar fruit cups and/or applesauce. These should be non-refrigerated. You can also make a financial donation to OCPC. If you are interested in helping with this collection, we could use a volunteer or two to shop for these items if we receive some financial gifts towards them.

MISSION CHALLENGE FOR OCPC: Hunger is a daily issue in our schools. The number of children and youth facing food scarcity at home continues to increase while federal funding for school lunch (and breakfast programs) face further government cuts. The Blue Jay Backpack Program currently only provides food to 75 K-12 graders once a month. It is hoped that over this year that the program can begin to meet the needs on a weekly basis. Many schools have begun food pantries in the school building. McFarland High School, where Pastor Scott works, has one. The hope would be that Cambridge School District working with the Food Pantry with the support of the local churches and community groups could also have food pantries in the middle and high school. To do this, more volunteers and financial gifts would be needed. This is a local mission we as a congregation should support with our donations and also with volunteers.

SERVICE OPPORTUNITYS – ON NOVEMBER 18 WE WILL HOST A MEAL AT PRES HOUSE. Each year, under the organization of Mike and Cheryl Stitz, OCPC members prepare and serve a meal to the UW- Madison students at our Presbyterian Campus Ministry Center. Pres House is located on the Library Mall. There is a sign-up sheet in Fellowship Hall if you are able to donate food for the meal or attend and assist with the meal. We will be carpooling to Pres House and leaving the church at 3:00 p.m.

MEALS ON WHEELS – Volunteers are needed for November 12-23. Contact Cheryl Stitz at 608-695-1838 if there are any questions about either of these mission opportunities.

BELLS OF PEACE is a National Bell Tolling sponsored by the U.S. World War I Centennial Commission. It is in remembrance and honor of all those who served in the Great War. The United States participated from April 6, 1917 to November 11, 1918. It will take place on Sunday, November 11, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. local time across the United States and its territories. We will toll our bell slowly, 21 times with a five-second interval between tolls. The 21 tolls of the bell symbolize the nation's highest honor; it is based on the 21-gun salute.

Tolling of bells is the traditional way to mark someone's passing. On special national occasions, bells are tolled in honor of the fallen. November 11 is the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Armistice that ended hostilities in World War 1. In the war, 116,516 Americans died and over 200,000 were wounded.

HOLIDAY REMEMBRANCE NOVEMBER 4 AT 1 PM... Join Nitardy and Schneider-Michaelis for a Holiday Service of Remembrance. This celebration is for families who have lost a loved one and wish to honor them and will be presided over by Sarah Hoffman MS, LPC. Following the service, there will be a time of fellowship and refreshments. This event is being held November 4th, 1:00 p.m., Nitardy Funeral Home, 1008 Madison Ave., Fort Atkinson, WI 53538. Please RSVP to (920) 563-5898 or (920) 674-3960.

PRESBYTERIAN TRIENNIUM 2019 - JULY 16-20 AT PURDUE UNIVERSITY Pastor Scott and Megan Meier (who attended as a youth) are planning to attend the Presbyterian Church's National Youth Triennium, serving as Residence Hall Coordinators.
