Musical entertainment during the luncheon will be presented by the women's barbershop quartet, By Request. There will be two performance times at 11:15 a.m. and 12:15 p.m. with 15 minute sets. The group formed in 2009 and has won several awards, including a regional championship and most improved award. Members include Marie Grafwallner-Huseth (lead), Jen Johnson (baritone), Jane Richard (bass) and Angie Williams (tenor) singing 4-part a cappella harmonies. All four quartet members are involved in the local chapter of Sweet Adelines, International.

Wind and Strings Ensemble, with Lisa Leadholm on flute, Mare Stewart flute, and Bobbi Rumpf on violin, comes together just for the luncheon. Their first performance starts at 11:45 a.m. with a second at 12:45 p.m.

Lisa plays occasionally at Grace Lutheran Church. Mare plays at Oakland-Cambridge Presbyterian Church. Bobbi plays in a symphony in Florida.

Come and join us for a scrumptious luncheon and entertainment.
