UPDATE FROM SESSION CONCERNING MASKS FOR VACCINATED AND UNVACCINATED PEOPLE IN WORSHIP.

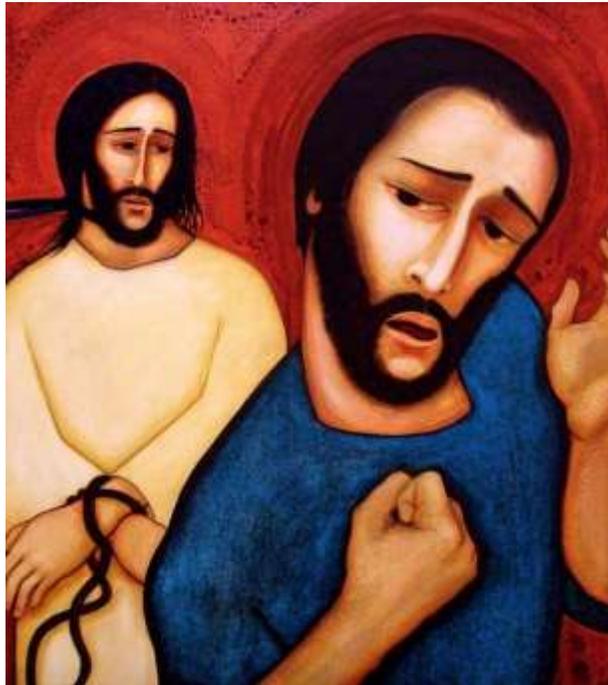

People who are fully vaccinated will no longer need to wear a mask inside. People who are not vaccinated are encouraged to please continue wearing a mask out of concern for their own health and the health and safety of others. While we will not be asking who are and are not vaccinated, we pray you will be respectful of the needs of all. While we continue to see light at the end of the pandemic tunnel because of the vaccine, we know that the COVID-19 virus and its variants are still active. We are also aware that some people, even if they have been vaccinated, might still choose to wear a mask inside. Please do as you feel comfortable. The Session is mindful of the anxiety many people have about reconnecting with groups of people, even small in number as we are, after such a period of time. We are also mindful of the health issues of a number of our members, some who wish to be in worship for their own spiritual and mental health. If you have not been vaccinated, we encourage you to do so. Thank you for understanding as we seek to love and care for each other, including the vulnerable among us.

I Love To Tell The Story: A Summer Sermon Series

There is an old Hasidic saying that goes: "God love stories so much that God created humans." Pastor Scott will be sharing a preaching series around stories we tell in our lives, in our churches, and in our nation, reflecting on them through the lens of Christ.

JULY 18
8TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
10 AM WORSHIP

Luke 22:33-34, 54-62

Egner Park in McFarland

“REJECTED, REBOUNDED AND REDEEMED” FAMOUS 8’ GOALS

WE LOVE TO TELL THE STORY – This Sunday, July 18, Pastor Scott invites us to listen to a modern telling of the story of Peter’s denial of Jesus using the Gospel of Luke account. He originally wrote this story during the height of the HIV-AIDS Crisis while serving as an Associate Minister at Northminster Presbyterian Church in Indianapolis (1988-1994). A colleague in ministry, Rev. Howard Warren, was fired by the church he served when they found out he had contracted the HIV-AIDS virus. Ryan White, a young high school student from Kokomo, Indiana, had a blood disease known as hemophilia. He contracted the HIV-Virus following a blood transfusion. His high school would not allow him to attend in person, so he transferred to Hamilton Heights High School in Cicero, Indiana. Ryan White died one month short of his high school graduation; his funeral was held at Second Presbyterian Church in Indianapolis. During this time, Magic Johnson, star NBA player for the Los Anglos Lakers announced he too had contracted the HIV-Virus. This story takes place on a basketball court where two friends often came to shoot hoops and talk. It is a story of denial, rejection, and ultimately, redemption.

Our musician for this Sunday is Marian Korth. We also continue to live-stream the service on our church Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/OCPCambridgeWI>

THANK YOU to Mark Touhey and Judy Schroeder for tending to our beautiful flowers!. Feel free to stop and smell the flowers, and pull a few weeds while you are doing so too!

VACATION SCHEDULE: Our office manager, Ruth, will be on vacation/out of town from August 9-16. Please be sure to submit any information for the August 8 and 15 bulletins, and the E-News for August 10, early enough so that they can prepared before she leaves town. Thank you!

FROM PERSONNEL: For several years Julie Anderson has worked to keep our church clean. However, Julie recently informed the church that her time as a cleaner is coming to a close. We want to thank Julie for her efforts. We appreciate all she has done for us. We will now be looking for someone else who may be interested in filling the position. If you have any interest, or know of anyone who might want the job, please let us know. In the meantime, we need help cleaning the church. Currently the building is not used much, so twice-a -month cleanings may be sufficient. We are looking for volunteers to help us out. There will be a clip board for signing up in the Fellowship hall. Please help us out as you are able!

OFFERING ENVELOPES FOR 2021 are available in Fellowship Hall and by request or appointment. Please contact Ruth in the church office 608-423-3001 to arrange pick-up.
