Dane County Mask Mandate

PLEASE REMEMBER: Masks are required for everyone entering the church for worship or other inside gatherings. We also strongly encourage everyone to please get vaccinated!

PARKING LOT TAILGATE WORSHIP
SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 19
10 AM!

We will hold our worship this Sunday, September 19 in our parking lot. You are invited to join us. Please bring your own lawn chair, a beverage of your choice, and wear your favorite Packer or other team outfit. Since we are outside, you will not need to wear a mask, unless you enter the church building. We will worship and have fellowship. Our hope is to also be able to use our FM transponder so those who wish to remain in their vehicles may listen in tuning to FM 104.3 on their radio. We also continue to live-stream the service on our church Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/OCPCambridgeWI>.

What Packer outfit will you wear this Sunday?

FELLOWSHIP RETURNS

We are once again having some fellowship time following worship. As long as the weather is agreeable, we are serving outside, providing foods that can be individually shared safely. If you are interested in providing fellowship refreshments, please let Mare Stewart or Pastor Scott know.

Worship Schedule

September 26 – Rev. Hugh Drennan will be our guest preacher. There will be no live-streaming of this service due to Pastor Scott and his iPhone being on vacation.

October 3 – World Communion Sunday.

OCPC Book Read for September

“We Aren’t Broke: Uncovering Hidden Resources for Mission and Ministry”

Rev. Mark Elsdon, who has been co-pastor at Pres House with his spouse, Rev. Erica Liu, has written a new book. The Session has decided to read this together. We are inviting others to join us. If you are interested in ordering a copy, please let Pastor Scott know or you can order your own copy online at: <https://www.amazon.com/We-Arent-Broke-Uncovering-Resources/dp/0802878989> . The cost is $18.99

About Mark's book:

"Many Christian churches and related institutions in the United States are struggling or, in some cases, facing imminent crisis, especially in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic. Attendance is down. Funding is harder to come by. People are no longer drawn to traditional church services and programming in the ways that they once were. Often, we feel broke and powerless to do much about it. We settle for doing more with less: Less money. Fewer people. Fewer churches.

But if we reexamine our perceived limits and our assumptions about how resources are supposed to be used, then something remarkable and beautiful comes into view: we aren't broke at all but have enormous resources at our disposal. Church and missional organizations nationwide own billions of dollars of prime property and investment assets, which, when combined with social enterprise and new expressions of mission, can be put to work for innovation and transformation. And these resources are often available to us right now.

This book is an invitation to envision a different way of putting God's gifts to work in the world. It draws upon a remarkable story of rebirth at a Presbyterian affiliated campus ministry center at the University of Wisconsin, along with profiles of other creative social enterprises, to describe how church property and investment assets can be put to work for innovation, transformation, and financial sustainability. Theologically rooted but practically minded, it provides guidance and tools for church and nonprofit leaders, entrepreneurs, and investors of all kinds who are seeking new ways to fund and participate in God's work in the world."

OCPC HAS A MISSION FUND. The Session is looking for mission opportunities who might need our support. If you have a suggestion, please send it to pastor@ocpchurch.com

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR CLEANING THE CHURCH... We need help cleaning the church. Currently the building is not used much, so twice-a-month cleanings may be sufficient. We are looking for volunteers to help us out. There will be a clip board for signing up in the Fellowship hall.

Please help us out as you are able!
